WELCOME LETTER

Dear Potential Student Leader,

I'm glad that you're interested in working with the Student Leadership Team here at Evangelical Covenant Church (ECC)!

ECC is looking for High School students to serve on our student leadership team here. We believe that solid ministry is built on relationships between students and adults, each working side-by-side to reach this generation for Christ. Relationships and service are key to understanding God's love in practical ways. When these two elements are used together, real spiritual growth takes place in our lives.

The purpose of this team is to train, develop and equip godly student leaders to impact their generation for Christ.

The quality of our SLT is very important. We are looking for young men and women who have a growing commitment to Christ and desire to care for their peers. We are not looking for people who view student ministry as an extension of their social life or as strictly good times. We are looking for people who will commit to being spiritual leaders to other junior high and high school students. With prayer and consideration, read the enclosed material. Because we place high value on this ministry, we place great value in who we select for this team.

Once I have received your application, I will call you to schedule an interview appointment. All information will be kept strictly confidential.

Student ministry is a great way to invest your time and serve the Lord! I am looking forward to meeting with you and spending some time to talk about your hopes and dreams for ministry. If you have any need to reach me, please feel free to call or email.

'Til Christ Returns,

IF GOD IS LEADING YOU TO WORK WITH THE SLT

1. Express Interest: You may have an interest in serving God by loving people, but are unsure as to where you can help make a difference. We will help you with this. Talk to another student leader, an adult volunteer or Tim to find out more information as you prayerfully consider whether you can commit to this team or not.
2. Receive SLT Material: Read over all the pages and information in this application. This packet gives you the basic information that you will need to make decisions about our involvement.
3. Prayerfully Consider your Commitment: We want you to take time to pray and think through your commitment. We encourage you to seek the counsel of family and/or friends regarding your decision.
4. Complete the Application Package: This application package was developed to obtain appropriate information for our screening process. We require that all the pages in this packet be filled out and returned to Tim, as well as three references, at least one of whom is not from our church nor is a member of your family. You can choose a (1) teacher/coach, (2) adult youth volunteer, and/or (3) an employer within the last year.
5. Interview with Tim: This is an opportunity for you to share your thoughts from your observations, describe your spiritual journey, and communicate your gifts and desires for working with the SLT. We will also discuss your application and more areas of responsibility.
6. Review by youth group adult volunteer team: When your interview is complete, Tim will take your application to the rest of the youth group adult volunteers. Together they make the decision about your involvement on the Student Leadership Team based on the Qualities of a Student Leader discussed later in this packet.
7. Commitment Sheet: Sign the Time to Commit sheet and turn it in to Tim.
8. Beginning Ministry: After you turn in the Time to Commit sheet, we will connect you with a personal mentor who will work along side you in your area of ministry.
9. Evaluation Meeting: At your two month mark, we will meet to evaluate your feelings and perceptions regarding your involvement with the SLT. We will continue to evaluate throughout the year and adjust your role to better fit your style, personality, and strengths.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM THE ADULT LEADERS:

- Structure and leadership
- Training and learning opportunities
- Communication of support and direction
- Challenge to develop your ministry
- Contact outside of church once a week to pray together and be encouraged
- Someone who will speak well of you both privately and publicly
- Someone who will report to the youth pastor on a monthly basis about your struggles and successes
- Assign tasks in your area of responsibility
- Ensure that you are successful and learn from each experience
- Debrief with you after each experience to review what was done well and discuss what can be done better

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM THE YOUTH PASTOR:

- Lead monthly in-depth Bible studies through theology that challenges each student in their individual walks with Christ. "How to study the Bible."
- Provide trainings for the SLT in their areas of responsibility.
- Discover areas for character development in each student and address them individually with consistent accountability.
- Assign leadership responsibilities to students based on the individual's spiritual gifts, passions and vision for ministry.
- Assign an adult mentor to each student.
- Train adult volunteers to teach and utilize their SLT student effectively.
- Provide encouragement and input for all mentors and student leaders.
- Oversee the SLT ministry.

OUR GENERAL PHILOSOPHY OF YOUTH MINISTRY

Purpose Statement

ECC Student Ministries exists to introduce teens and young adults to a saving belief in Jesus Christ and to then provide them with sources for spiritual growth where they will have the opportunity to develop a Godly lifestyle that will create mature relationships and promote service to both God and others.

Biblical Imperatives

There are five elements that continually drive every aspect of our youth ministry. Each of these elements undergoes constant evaluation and re-evaluation followed by appropriate revision in order to reach the highest potential of effectiveness.

1. Introduce: Fulfilling God's purpose of Evangelism (Acts 1:8)
A huge part of our heart and passion for ministry lies in unsaved students. These students, though often overlooked, are just as important to the Lord as godly students. We believe it is essential for our ministry to focus on this un-reached group, present the gospel to them through relevant means, and introduce them to a saving belief in Christ.
2. Growth: Fulfilling God's purpose of Discipleship (Heb. 6:1; Matt. 28:18-20)
Every student needs to grow spiritually. God desires to spit out of His mouth those who are stagnant and lukewarm (Rev. 3:15-16). Part of our purpose is to provide students with an environment where they will be encouraged and aided toward hot spiritual maturity in Christ.
3. Lifestyle: Fulfilling God's purpose of Worship (Romans 12:1)
Worship, often thought to be synonymous with singing, includes many aspects. It includes praying (Ps 95:6), hearing the Word (John 17:17; Deut. 31:11), giving (1 Cor. 16:1-2), baptizing (Rom. 6:3-4), meditating (Hab. 2:20), partaking of the Lord's Supper (1 Cor. 11:23-26), and more. Each of these are just as important as musical worship and need to be approached and implemented as such since worship is more accurately an approach to life than an act on Sunday mornings.
4. Relationships: Fulfilling God's purpose of Fellowship (Eph. 2:19)
God made humans very relational. A large majority of effective ministry takes place within the context of personal relationships with students. We believe it is vitally important for students to be plugged into a group of peers and adults where they can establish relationships of godly influences. Part of our purpose is introducing students to such influential people.
5. Service: Fulfilling God's purpose of Ministry (Ephesians 4:11-12)
Every student has been blessed with spiritual gifts provided by God for the edification of others. Students of any age are able to use those gifts in service to God and others. When each of their unique gifts are implemented, both the ministry and the student will grow.

Core Values

Our core values reveal what is important to our ministry. In no particular order, these are the values we desire our ministry to reflect. Each is strategically planned and implemented into the ministry as much as possible.

- Heart for missions
- Relationships
- Food
- Fun
- Bible based
- We welcome kids from other denominations.
- We focus on doing rather than being.
- Small groups

- Life transformation
- Equipping loving confrontation
- Transparency/authenticity
- Willing to take risks
- Dream without boundaries
- Prayer
- Personal worship
- Evangelism
- Support for parents
- Christ
- Never in competition
- Spiritual growth
- We value students individually, not collectively
- Safe environment
- Teach by modeling/example
- Value the Holy Spirit's working
- Setting personal boundaries
- Musical worship
- Student leadership/ministry
- Confidentiality
- Strive for excellence
- Relationships over religion

1. Prayer: (Romans 12:12; 1 Thes. 5:17)

Prayer and devotion is a vital aspect of our ministry's atmosphere. Not just prayer that is flippantly thrown to the ceiling, but rather prayer that comes from a heart of devotion to God.

2. Unconditional Love: (John 15:12-13; Romans 12:9-10)

There are many unconditional attitudes we seek to demonstrate through this: unconditional acceptance, caring, compassion, and a sense of security. It communicates to students that this is a place where they know they are genuinely loved without any prerequisites – they are welcome no matter what.

3. Trust: (James 5:16)

In order for students to accept the messages we present to them, there needs to be an element of trust established between us. This includes the idea of trusting each other in such a way that hypocrisy is unnecessary and easily put aside allowing us to be real, honest, and genuine with each other.

4. Respect: (1 Peter 2:17)

Everyone has different opinions and perspectives. Although we have differences, we agree to respect each other and not allow it to affect our relationship. We do not push students to Christ -- we respect their wishes and let them discover Him on their own pace. There is also a general respect for people's time, efforts, and values.

5. Encouragement: (Hebrews 3:13)

No one likes walking down a hard unknown path without support. Neither do students enjoy walking down an unfamiliar spiritual road without support and encouragement. Our ministry is built on motivation and support through encouragement in every area of a student's life.

6. Fun: (Ecclesiastes 3:4)

We value a light atmosphere of fun and laughter when appropriate. God made humans with the ability to laugh and have fun, so that ability should be implemented into ministry. No one enjoys or feels attracted to a strict and solemn environment. This joyful atmosphere can be used to enhance relationships by allowing students to relax and feel more comfortable. It can also allow for them to be more receptive to our message of Christ.

7. Challenging: (Eph. 4:1ff; 1 Thess. 4:1; 1 Pet 2:11)

The balance to fun is in the challenging aspect of our ministry's core values. We challenge the students in different aspects of their lives, but most importantly challenge them in a deeper understanding of the Bible's content and its application to their daily lives.

8. Hospitality: (Romans 12:13; 1 Peter 4:9)

We extend ourselves and our resources to each other. This includes material hospitality, but it also involves creating an environment that is seeker sensitive and comfortable for unsaved students.

The Objective: A description of what we intend to produce

Ministry has the capacity of accomplishing any number of outcomes. Counseling ministries hope to assist those with personal problems to recover and correct their situations in a way that glorifies God. Small group ministries desire to enhance spiritual growth by promoting Bible study through relational interaction and accountability. Worship teams hope to facilitate an environment where worship is promoted through music or a number of other means, thus guiding people hearts into an attitude of reverence before the Lord. Likewise, we too have something we intend to produce from our ministry to teenagers.

The student we wish to produce through the work of the Holy Spirit consists of specific qualities. First, the student will have left his or her former state of separation from God and has entered into a saving belief in Jesus Christ. This is followed by not only a desire to know God, but also a desire and has begun to grow by exercising its spiritual muscles. Naturally, the student with this goal in mind will be motivated to leave their previous life of sin and change to live in worship, respect, reverence, and in awe of the Lord and eventually move to serving Him and others with their lives. When a student has reached this point in our ministry, through the work of the Holy Spirit, our intended product in ministry has been reached.

To summarize, a student we intend to produce stems from their introduction to Christ and then being SAVED:

Salvation: (John 5:26)

Has a saving belief in the Lord Jesus Christ

Abandon: (Eph. 4:21-24)

Has left their life of sin

Veneration: (Rom. 12:1-2)

Has a desire to live for the Lord with an attitude of worship and respect

Exercise: (1 Pet. 2:2-3)

Has taken appropriate and necessary steps to know God deeper

Desire: (Matt. 5:6; Isa. 55:1-2)

Has an appetite and hunger to know God

- Students who are growing in depth and insight of God's Word.
- Students who genuinely worship God both publicly and privately.
- Students who have a burden for lost souls around them.

THE VISION FOR OUR YOUTH GROUP

Dream Big

A value of ours at ECC Student Ministries is to dream big. We believe God is a big God who does big things in big ways. In the Old Testament He delivered the entire nation of Israel from captivity, not once but twice! In the New Testament He caused a virgin to become pregnant. He also healed the incurable and freed apostles from top-security prisons. At Redeemer we don't want to limit God by only asking for "small" things. Rather, a big God is in the business of doing big things through His people, so together we dream big and allow Him to do what He does best. This vision will probably always be in the editing phase as God continues to work and direct. However, this what He has presently laid on our hearts.

Vision for Students

- Godly genuine relationships are the key to our ministry. Everything else is supplemental to these relationships. When a student arrives at our youth group (hereafter: YG), he or she is smothered with unconditional love and acceptance.
- This YG is led by its own student body. Adult volunteers and staff are there to supervise, offer support and training, and provide resources so the students can successfully minister to their own peers.
- This is a place where every student is involved in the ministry. Each student eventually becomes plugged in through various means and opportunities the YG provides. The YG leadership has the ability to adapt and create new opportunities for individual students based on their gifts, talents, and passion.
- Various teams will be established for students to plug in to, with one or more adult mentors for each team. Teams include, but are not limited to: drama, media, worship, outreach, teaching, fun, people, events, and more...
- Bible studies are offered for various levels of spiritual maturity, starting with studies for those investigating Christianity to studies for the spiritually mature leaders. These Bible studies will be taught by students whenever possible.
- Discipleship takes place in home-groups. This provides an intimate setting with one-on-one personal interaction between students and leaders, allowing us to more effectively invest into their individual lives.
- The students will connect with other area youth groups during the school year for the purpose of meeting other Christians at their school so together they can develop strategies for reaching their campus for Christ.
- The YG will prepare students so that when they reach 12th grade they are fully devoted followers of Christ and are ready to take their leadership skills and ministry experience into college and other parts of the world.
- This YG is led by its own student body. Adult volunteers and staff are there to supervise, offer support and training, and provide resources so the students can successfully minister to their own peers.
- This is a place where every student is involved in the ministry. Each student eventually becomes plugged in through various means and opportunities the YG provides. The YG leadership has the ability to adapt and create new opportunities for individual students based on their gifts, talents, and passion.

Our Dream

Imagine if...

- Kids can't wait to get to school and invite their friends.
- Students stand out at school, not conforming.
- Students were a vital/visible part of the church.
- Every youth parent was involved in youth ministry.
- Every student in Alexandria attended youth group either here or elsewhere.
- All cliques and barriers were broken down and everyone felt welcomed.
- Some student was touched strongly enough by the Lord that they made a world-wide difference.
- Every at-risk student in the community was influenced by our program.
- Every student at the H.S. knew that they are a precious child of God.
- Every student was following Christ instead of rules.
- Every student knew the absolute truths.
- Our youth program could impact the college.
- Every student in Alexandria understood the roll of sex in their lives.
- We could equip parents with knowledge of God.
- There was a mentor for every teenager in town.
- The youth group was considered the safest place in town.
- Our youth program impacted other churches in Alexandria.
- Denominational differences didn't matter.
- If church was the students' #1 priority
- The youth and adults were kind to one another.
- Every student had one good friend to help them make the right choices.
- Every student would take ownership of their faith.
- Every student was using the Internet and technology for good Godly purposes.
- Students would take responsibility of their own actions.
- Everyone could just be real.
- We as a team totally sought God's will and had none of our own agendas and motives.
- We all had the same heart as God.
- If ego and pride was removed from the equation.
- We didn't let the world water-down our values.
- We did a service project that made news and left a huge positive impact.
- Everyone was ready for the second coming.
- Every student in our community that has a crisis has someone to call.
- We didn't care as much about ourselves.
- That in every crisis, the first instinct would be to turn to God in prayer.
- We all would pray without ceasing.
- Every student had a burden for lost souls.
- Every student viewed their school as a mission field.
- The kids knew how to repent for their own screw-ups.
- Students would stand up for their faith and would share/explain it to their friends.
- All of us knew the real consequences for our actions.
- Students were passionate to worship God both publicly and privately.
- Teachers could use their knowledge of what they know of God in their school teachings.
- All the students in our youth group were unified together.
- If youth group could be a "family."
- The Sr. High students were all intentionally positive roll-models for the Jr. High.
- Every graduating senior was equipped to be a spiritual leader on their college campus.
- The church took an inter-generational approach to ministry.
- Church services were lead by students.

- Students took ownership over their church and had the freedom to fail and adults ensured that they were successful.
- Everything was spirit-led.
- Students knew their gifts and were confident to use them for God.
- Students' spiritual maturity would set an example for adults.
- Our students would change culture.
- The youth group was serious about developing a relationship with God.
- Everyone could speak with boldness and had opportunities to practice it.
- Every student was trained to share their faith.
- Every student was a great storyteller of the Gospel.
- Everyone was willing to be authentic and transparent.
- The church became a community that loved on teenagers.
- We always did ministry out of imagination instead of doing it by memory.
- We weren't afraid to fail.
- We weren't afraid of other people's opinions of us.
- Every student in Alexandria had repeated opportunities to hear and respond to the Gospel.
- Fundraising was unnecessary.
- Service projects were for the purpose of service instead of fundraising.
- Our involvement with youth was contagious to others around us.
- There was a ministry that met every student's needs.
- Our youth group was known for what it is rather than what it does.
- Every student felt comfortable showing appropriate physical affection with each other.
- Student knew their Bibles.
- Every student could discuss theology.
- Students brought their Bibles and used them in church.
- Students could recite passages of scripture by memory.
- There was a forum where students could safely debate issues and problems.
- Students knew how to appropriately resolve conflict.
- God was real and living in every student's life and it was evidenced through their actions.
- Prayer was as natural as breathing and became a priority in students' lives.
- We first practiced everything in our own lives before we taught it to others.
- Youth group became obsolete because they'd be so on fire and out in the community that they wouldn't need us.
- We worked ourselves into obsolesces.

EXPECTATIONS OF STUDENT LEADERS:

- Be COMMITTED to God and to Student Ministries here at ECC.
- Mingle with students from any school and make newcomers feel welcome. New people WILL feel out of place, so the more people who say “hi” and learn their names, the better. This doesn’t mean that you have to spend hours with them, but let them know that they are noticed. Don’t forget to say “hi” the next week too! Remember their names!! Everyone is welcome no matter what they look like, smell like, or how they talk!
- Participate wholeheartedly. Any game can be fun if you want it to be. Be the first to jump up when it is time to get in a team or a line, etc. Look for people not participating and pull them in. Clap, yell, scream, and cheer...when appropriate. No student leader should be sitting on the sidelines. Watch for people cheating or for the game breaking down and seek to correct it. Help with any props that may be needed.
- If you are in a boyfriend/girlfriend relationship, we do expect that you stay sexually pure and continue to be above reproach in all that you do. Set an excellent standard in all that you do.
- Please dress very modestly; the last thing that we want is to be a subject of lust to other students!
- Actively look for ways to make the meetings and events run smoother.
- Follow through on responsibilities.
- Pray regularly for our youth ministry and its leaders.
- Be on time for all activities (at least 15 minutes early unless specific ministry requirements require more).
- If you have a concern or question about anything involving ECC youth, please contact Tim immediately – before chatting about an issue or situation with another student. Thanks!!
- It is very important that you let us know beforehand if you are unable to attend an event – especially one that you are specifically helping out with. Please make arrangements so any responsibilities under your care are properly cared for.
- Attend monthly SLT Bible studies and accountability groups.
- Regularly attend church services, participate in worship and commit to tithing.
- Regularly attend youth group meetings and activities.
- Be diligent, faithful and dependable in individual areas of responsibility.
- Attend scheduled trainings, retreats, trips and special events for the SLT.
- Respectfully follow the leadership and instructions of the mentoring adult leader.
- Debrief with mentoring adult leader after exercising leadership responsibilities.
- Commit to regular prayer, Bible study, evangelism, personal worship, scripture memorization and accountability in these areas among other students on the SLT.

- Attend select adult volunteer meetings and trainings.
- Participate in problem-solving.
- Find areas of need in the youth ministry and offer suggestions for improvement.
- Always publicly support and protect the youth ministry, its leaders and decisions. Address frustrations and concerns privately with the youth pastor, mentor and SLT.
- Diffuse gossip, rumors and conflict.
- Be a leader before being a friend. If your friend is chucking pop-corn at someone during a Bible study, take the initiative to ask them to stop instead of joining in or laughing.
- Stay positive even when things go bad.
- Serve school by praying for it, connecting with other Christians, and meeting the new people.
- Intentionally find ways to encourage other students.
- Serve as Angel Tree camp counselors.
- Practice as many of these items as possible at home.
- Commit to the Student Leadership Team for one year.

STUDENT LEADERSHIP BOUNDARIES

Utilize careful judgment at all times in the exercise of personal freedom, particularly when associated with and/or relating to students, either publicly or privately. We recognize that many of us have opinions and practices on certain lifestyle issues that differ from one another, such as how we conduct ourselves and the language we use. Furthermore, the Bible, to which we attribute the ultimate authority for all Christian life, is not explicit on every issue within our culture. Nevertheless, many Christians have historically condemned the use of certain words and body language.

Lifestyle issues are complicated further by the reality that we are in a position of trust and influence in the youth ministry. Therefore, with respect to such issues as the use of language, entertainment, gambling, and other behavioral matters that are open to abuse, misuse and misunderstanding, the following biblical principles must be followed:

- The Bible condemns self-indulgence while commanding self-control (Gal. 5:19-25).
- The Bible commands respect of one's body (1 Thes. 4:4; 1 Cor. 6:18-20).
- Community interests are to be put ahead of self-interest (Phil. 2:3-5).

Personal liberty is to be set aside:

- When its exercise could hinder a student's spiritual development;
- When its exercise could be misunderstood in such a way as to hinder one's own witness, or that of ECC youth;
- When culture abuse suggests the need for Christian leaders to exercise self-restraint;
- When an action could endanger another person's safety or well-being.

Please Note: This is not intended to be a legalistic definition of right and wrong. It is meant to provide principles to limit the experience of Christian liberty because of the position of influence in which that we find ourselves.

- Be purposeful in who you talk to and hangout with at youth. ALWAYS ALWAYS watch for the new person or someone who looks like they are feeling left out.
- Dating fellow youth group member is no problem (unless you're married!), but please keep your focus on the ministry at youth group. Please, no PDA. Keep it clean, keep it Christ-centered.
- Language boundaries: no swearing permitted. In no way can foul language be promoted. This includes coarse joking, rude remarks, gossip, inappropriate sarcasm, and negativity. Please and Thank You. 😊

QUALITIES OF STUDENT LEADERS

- Positive Attitude – The ability to work with and see people and situations in a constructive way.
- Servanthood – The willingness to sacrifice time and energy for others without needing anyone to notice.
- Team Player – The mind-set of looking out for others and lifting others up.
- Growing Edge – A hunger for personal and spiritual growth. We cannot lead where we have not been.
- Follow-Through – A commitment to be responsible and to fulfill any specific ministries or jobs taken.
- Integrity – Trustworthiness and solid character; consistency in words and walk are key.
- Discipline – The willingness to do what is required regardless of personal mood; youth meetings and events are for students so please stay student-minded.
- Relational – The ability to make others feel comfortable. Every student counts and needs to be known, greeted, and cared for.
- Sense of Humor – Ability to laugh at yourself, try new things and have a good time learning from your mistakes!!
- Be Patient – Be patient with yourself. Don't stress if your learning curve is high. Just be willing to learn. Also be patient with others. Remember everyone is at a different place. Reach out and love people where they're at!
- Potential leadership ability – Maybe you've never been a leader of anything before, but that's okay! Leaders are not just up-front on-stage people. Leadership also takes place in many ways behind the scenes. We're looking for potential in students that can be trained and encouraged.
- Commitment – Commitment to the student ministry at ECC, God, other students and to areas of individual responsibility.
- Respect – A student leader needs to have respect for peers, adults and their parents. They also need to conduct themselves in a way that earns the trust and respect of those around them.
- Teachable Spirit – The ability to be humble, open to loving criticism and able to learn from others.

WHAT YOUTH GROUP STUDENTS NEED FROM A STUDENT LEADER

Changing the world for your peers happens one student at a time. People do not connect to programs, they connect to people. The most effective way to influence your peers is through significant relationships. Our goal is to develop student leaders who will minister to students. Our youth group students need student leaders who will:

- Love God and let Him live through them
- Be interested in their lives
- Pray for them
- Be real
- Say encouraging words
- Laugh
- Remember their names and care for them
- Share God's love through personal experience
- Be consistent in life and ministry
- Be patient
- Enjoy life
- Be a leader, not a peer

Do you have a spiritual accountability partner? Yes No

Are you open to greater spiritual accountability? Yes No

Is there anything else you feel that we need to know about you? Yes No

If yes, please explain.

Please give the enclosed reference forms to three people who can testify to your commitment to Christ and life testimony, at least one of whom is not from our church nor is a member of your family. You can choose a teacher/coach, adult youth volunteer and/or an employer within the last year. Have them send it to Tim when they complete it.

The information contained in this application is correct to the best of my knowledge. I, the undersigned, give my authorization to Evangelical Covenant Church or its representatives to release any and all records or information relating the Student Leadership Team. Evangelical Covenant Church may contact my references as deemed necessary in order to verify my suitability as a student leader. I also understand that the personal information will be held confidential by Evangelical Covenant Church leadership.

YOUR PRAYER SUPPORT TEAM

Ministry is something that is powered by the strength and leading of God in our life. We can often be doing the task of ministry without actually being a minister. Being student leader is more than simply doing a task or feeling important. Leadership in this ministry is more about being ministers who are focused on being apart of growing students closer to Christ.

Most of us have extremely busy lives and finding time to pray is difficult. There's church, sports, band, school, friends, down time, family, work, and recreation that continually demands our time and attention. We must learn to pray – to slow down and take time, to talk to God, to meet with God, and to walk with God. We must bathe our ministry in prayer. We must have a community of people from around us who will commit to pray for us. This is a vital part of your commitment to the Student Leadership Team and to this youth group – to pray and have others praying for you.

Each student leader will be required to have a prayer-support team of at least 5 people who know you and who will commit to covering you in a support of regular prayer. Individuals on your prayer team will be expected to pray for you at least a couple of times a week. It is your responsibility to regularly communicate areas of need for them to pray for (i.e. your struggles, challenges, praise reports, etc.). They will also be periodically sent prayer letters and updates from ECC Student Ministries.

TIME TO COMMIT

After spending time in prayer and discussing with my family and friends the commitment involved with being in the Student Leadership Team, I choose to commit to the following:

- I acknowledge the Lordship of Jesus Christ in my life and have a personal relationship with him.
- I am committed toward growing and maturing my relationship with God through personal devotions, active and regular attendance at Evangelical Covenant Church, personal times of worship, tithing, and involvement in accountability.
- I am committed to choices and a lifestyle that are both godly and “above reproach” knowing that my lifestyle is a model for the students that I serve (see Expectations and Boundaries).
- I am making a commitment to ECC Student Ministries for one year.
- I will attend all Student Leadership Team meetings, Bible studies, retreats and trainings (unless otherwise discussed with Tim) and will make a committed attempt to attend youth meetings.
- I understand, agree, and will work hard to fulfill the purposes and vision of ECC Student Ministries and this Student Leadership Team.
- I am committed to releasing back to God my time and energy as an act of worship, trust and obedience to God.
- Because I am making a significant commitment and my presence is important, I agree to be consistent and timely in my responsibilities. I also agree to communicate with my adult mentor and the appropriate students if I will be absent.
- I am committed to praying for the students and leaders at this youth group and my involvement in it.
- I understand that my commitment is to God. I will be accountable to God and the adult leadership of ECC Student Ministries, understanding that lack of commitment on my part directly influences the ministry in our church.
